(c) what are the details of the proposed gas import from West Asia; and

(d) what would be the burden of its import on the country's Balance of Payment?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (CAPT. SATISH SHARMA): (a) and (b) While the registered demand for gas with the Gas Authority of India Limited is over 260 MMSCMD, the maximum projected indigenous availability of gas, including the gas that is currently being flared, is approximately 85 MMSCMD. The proposal to import natural gas is being considered to bridge the gap between the projected availability and the large demand.

(c) and (d) The proposal is only at a conceptual stage.
